“ Joy in God’s Word ”

JOY:

Text: Psalms 119: verses 9 - 16, & verses 105-112

When you open up God’s Word and read His Holy Book, what do you get out of it? _____

If you were to describe your times in Scripture as eating food, what kind of food would it be? Chocolate pie, steak and potatoes, green vegetables or a salad, whole-grain bread with no butter, chicken-broth with Ritz crackers, or what?

_____

Read Psalms 119:9-16

How is the psalmist’s passion for God’s Word evident in these verses?

_____

Describe a time when you rejoiced like this in about His Word as one rejoices about the riches? _____

What are the functions of the Word of God according to this passage?

_____

When we look at verses 10-16, it is about to keep our way pure. What does a pure life depend on according to this passage? _____

How have you found it difficult and easy to live a pure life? _____

_____

Now to Psalms 119:105-112— read

What is this main function? _____ In what areas do you rely on guidance in God’s Word to show you the way? _____

What are the difficulties the psalmist encountered in following God’s Word? _____ Have you found that true for you?

_____

** I want you to write a Love Letter back to God in your words about His Word.
